They're funded by George Soros' organization, Open Societies

Another piece of proof that Soros is behind this garbage. Great job finding out that it's treason -- let's LOCK HIM UP

I might be falling asleep soon but I had a thought - searching craigslist in all major cities. tracking down the orgs paying people to protest.

Then drawing a biiig map, showing how all of them [if legitimately true] are funded by Open Societies owned by Soros

So far, Washington CAN [great work @ you] & United We Dream are both recruiting paid protesters and funded by Open Societies, which Soros doesn't hide his involvement --

I am one and can verify (local county LEO). We handle petty day to day problems with the general population, but real issues with the power structure are beyond the line level officers control.

However, for some encouragement, by my own internal polling of my coworkers (LEOs), we supported Trump by like 95% No joke. There are bad cops to be sure, but there are A LOT of good ones. The conspiracy theory about martial law and the cops and military kicking down doors and taking guns and putting patriots in FEMA camps just ain't gonna happen because most cops and military agree with you. Even if my paycheck depended on it, if we got to a watershed moment like gun confiscation and FEMA camps, I would say hell no.

For now, I'll stay as a mole in the machine to gather info.

If it gets to that point, it would be more than just saying no, the people doing those things would likely be Federal groups carefully brainwashed to do whatever they are told. It would mean fighting against those people.

Awesome sleuthing! I read the code, it doesn't seem that it could be proven that they are "soldiers" as well as they are not "armed" so I don't know if this would hold true. But I asked the same question before, is it legal to pay protesters like this? Are they inciting violence, or because they are peaceful it's not against the law. I think it should be. If you want to protest, especially against the election, one should have to have voted (proven so).

And this Dallas group is a fine example of how the money is transferred around. For those that have not done so, it is very important to look in to the Form 990's. These two are good examples:

<http://www.cleanwaterfund.org/files/publications/Clean%20Water%20Fund%202014%20IRS%20990%20Public%20Version.pdf>

they then turn and around and fund part of the group running the ad:

<http://www.cleanwateraction.org/files/publications/finance/FY%202011%20CWA%20990.pdf>

Don't get caught up in all the details on the first few pages--go to the contributions and receipts pages to get a feel for whom they are giving and receiving from.

And remember, most of these are nonprofits that pay little to no tax on revenue--while trying to usurp our country.

These aren't armed hostilities against the United States.

They also aren't hiring soldiers or sailors.

Their add is vague and in no way indicates that property damage or armed resistance. It is a rent-a-protest but this law is specifically against a rent-a-subversive-guerrilla-unit-against-the-US.

Nonetheless good digging and keep tying this shit together. If a smoking gun is found whether they encourage violence and destruction of property then they'd be breaking other laws and the trails are already known.

To win the war on the Left, we need to take the fight to the source: colleges and universities. We do this by simply abolishing Federal Student Loans. Tell the universities that if they want students to attend on borrowed money, they can be the ones loaning them the money. These schools are all sitting on billions in cash and investments, they have the money to lend. And if they don't, then their enrollment will shrink and maybe they'll have to close. So be it. The bubble has to burst. We have reached Peak College.

How will this harm the Left? When you lend someone money, you want it back. Therefore, their future earning power is of great interest to you. This will, for the first time, expose colleges to the risk that they've been protected from for decades. They will be forced to only admit capable students, and to only offer majors that prepare students for profitable careers. And when that happens, 90% of these fruitcake "humanities" departments will be closed, and we will have scored a strategic (rather than tactical) blow against the Left, by shutting down the production of newly indoctrinated Leftists.

Here's an email from Chris Stone (Open Society President) to John Podesta from Dec 2015.

<https://wikileaks.org/podesta-emails/emailid/1180>

This is the OS end goal for police reform: to create a federally trained Investigative Division to be in charge of police investigations.

<https://medium.com/open-society-foundations/get-the-politics-out-of-policing-fa41df0206c9#9sfcwv6vn>

Open Society is mentioned a lot in the Podesta emails. I wonder if the planned protests are mentioned.

Well, Stone can offer up allllllll the wonderful authority overthrowing ideas and congratulations he wants - but with President Trump about to take office, Podesta will only be able to print it out and wipe his nasty pedo-loving fucked up crusty ass with with.
